Abstracts

High inflation was prevalent in the country in 2022 and dog food was no exception. Even though it has remained in single digits, at less than 9%, this was still the highest it had been in 26 years. Inflation was high due to an increase in dollar exchange rates stimulated by both the internal and external political situation. Also significant was an increase in import costs that impacted many products in the category directly because they were imported or indirectly through the inputs used for th...
