Abstracts

Dorel Industries' home furnishing products operated in another challenging year in 2012. Canada was singled out as the only market to have reported a loss. The company has begun increasing the sourcing of finished goods from Asia instead of producing them in Canada in order to drive down costs. Due to their high consumer debt, Canadians are also cutting back on big-ticket furniture, including futons, the company's leading category. Due to the success of home furnishing in the e-commerce channel...
