Abstracts

Dragonfly Teas will hope to build on its position as a much-loved local company that produces high-quality specialist teas. It will be under threat from more major competitors which are looking to expand into these markets as they are the most dynamic markets currently in the otherwise static tea market. Dragonfly has some brand loyalty already for its Tick-Tock red bush brand, and for many of its herbal teas, and this should stand it in good stead as consumers tend to prefer purchasing these...
