Abstracts

Asia Pacific is a major region for drinking milk and represents the biggest market by value. While sales are primarily stemming from China, markets with large populations such as India and Indonesia are growing rapidly. Growth is being aided by expansion in cold chain logistics, premiumisation towards natural and additive free drinking milk, entrance of private equity players, innovation towards lactose-free milk types and rising importance of hygienic packaged milk as a daily staple.

Euromonitor International's Drinking Milk in Asia Pacific global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Meals, Dairy Products and Alternatives, Snacks, Staple Foods.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
