Abstracts

When developing innovation in Africa, drivers that impact decision-making must be considered. These range from the impact of mobile phones on the continent, to the importance of local culture, to the strong tradition of the informal retailing market. Taking this wider view will allow for more success when creating or selling products in the region.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
