Abstracts

COVID-19 boosted e-commerce value sales, recording double-digit growth in 2020. While there was no government imposed quarantine, many Belarusians chose to self-isolate. In an attempt to avoid entering public spaces and risking personal contact, consumers switched to purchasing groceries and other necessities, such as personal care and home care products, online. By summer consumers began to slowly return back to stores, as they grew weary of being confined to their homes and desired to resume n...
