Abstracts

COVID-19 provided a significant boost to e-commerce in Hong Kong, with retail current value sales rising at their fastest rate in eight years during 2020. With physical stores forced to close their doors for an extended period during the spring and consumers spending much more time at home, online sales boomed. Prior to the pandemic, e-commerce had been relatively slow to take off in Hong Kong, largely because it is highly urbanised with very well developed retail infrastructure.

Euromonitor International's E-Commerce in Hong Kong, China report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
