Abstracts

The retailing landscape faced a high level of upheaval during the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, with many companies in Portugal forced to close their retail outlets during periods of national lockdown, and facing a continued lower level of sales through their outlets following the easing of restrictions. This prompted many companies in Portugal to turn to digital sales in order to continue business during periods of closure and reduced consumer footfall. Furthermore, home seclusion during the COVID...

Euromonitor International's E-Commerce in Portugal report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
