Abstracts

E-commerce value sales soared during the pandemic, as consumers spent more time at home and tried to minimise the number of shopping outlets they visited. Consumers shopped more online and across more product areas. On the supply side, companies responded to the changing circumstances by further developing their e-commerce channel, offering free delivery and hassle-free returns, in order to compensate for the decline in value sales in stores. All areas in e-commerce recorded a double-digit growth...

Euromonitor International's E-Commerce in Slovakia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Cross-border E-Commerce, E-Commerce by Product Category, Mobile E-Commerce.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
