Abstracts

Economic growth in Eastern Europe has accelerated since 2016, and in 2018, it considerably exceeded growth in Western Europe. Nevertheless, economic growth is expected to slow. The region is diverse in terms of economic development, growth rates, and economic outlook. Eastern Europe strongly relies on its trading with European Union (EU) partners, especially Germany. The region would be affected by a Global Downturn or a Eurozone Recession.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide.
