Abstracts

Global prices of cooking oils have been rising since the COVID-19 pandemic began. This is for multiple reasons, including poor harvests in South America, virus-related labour shortages, and steadily increasing demand from the biofuel industry. The war in Ukraine has also had a significant impact on the prices and supply of edible oils in 2022, with elevated global shipping and logistics costs further compounding these issues for Australia. Not only have these disruptions contributed to the cost
