Abstracts

Edible oils declined in volume terms in 2023, following only weak volume growth in 2022. Inflationary conditions that had been strong in 2022 worsened in 2023 due to the continuing depreciation of the local currency, a government policy of demonetisation, and steep rises in fuel prices introduced in 2023. Unit prices, therefore, continued to increase strongly during the year. Disposable income had severely weakened, leading to consumers cutting consumption. Although edible oils is quite essential...
