Abstracts

Both retail volume and current value sales of edible oils are set to see strong declines in 2023. After two years of exceptionally strong growth, the average unit prices of vegetable and seed oils have started to normalise over 2023, with prices falling significantly. Exports of sunflower oil from Ukraine have resumed despite the continuation of the war, and this, combined with local production, yielded sufficient supply for local demand. 2023, and the two years prior to that, saw few price prom...
