Abstracts

The industry's expansion followed government budget growth in 2018, as the Indonesian constitution mandates the government to allocate at least 20% of its budget to education. During the year, the public education expenditures were raised to IDR444 trillion which benefitted from a Medium-Term Revenue Strategy (MTRS), the country's growth-enhancing fiscal strategy, which is set to expand fiscal space by increasing revenue and improving spending efficiency. Moreover, the country's robust economic...
