Abstracts

Electronics and appliance specialist retailers will register a significant drop in value sales in 2021, returning to its 2019 value sales after the peak seen in the first year of the pandemic. During this year, the home seclusion led consumers to spend more on their homes to create a comfortable environment that could be used for both work and leisure. Thus, consumer purchases of small and major appliances increased, as did purchases of consumer electronics such TVs, home office equipment, and g...
