Abstracts

Sales of electronics and appliance specialist retailers fell significantly in the first months of the pandemic due to the closure of physical stores from mid-March to mid-July and the immobilisation of people, while e-commerce delivery was only authorised in mid-May. As a result, for two months this channel was unable to operate in any way. It should be taken into consideration that e-commerce was underdeveloped in specialist stores for these products prior to the pandemic, and customers, espec...
