Electronics and appliance specialist retailers grew at a steady pace in 2016 and this growth was driven mainly by the increasing numbers of consumers in India investing in consumer appliances and consumer electronics. Rising awareness of these products, their inclusion in the everyday routines of increasing numbers of people and rising annual disposable income levels all helped to drive growth in the channel during the year.

Euromonitor International's Electronics and Appliance Specialist Retailers in India report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
