Abstracts

Electronics and appliance specialist retailers bucked its general declining trend in Israel in 2020, when the pandemic and various lockdowns resulted in home seclusion and the switch to remote working and learning. Value sales therefore notably increased as Israelis looked to invest in home offices, or searched for alternative forms of entertainment whilst confined to the home environment, driving up demand for consumer electronics. In addition, they spent greater time in the kitchen preparing a...

Euromonitor International's Electronics and Appliance Specialist Retailers in Israel report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
