Abstracts

Asia Pacific is a region characterised by diverse economies, cultures and demographics. In such an environment, loyalty programmes need to be crafted to meet local consumers' preferences. Asia Pacific is facing a turning point where it can no longer rely on volume-based growth. Added value and building brand advocates is becoming more important than ever. It is expected that reforming loyalty programmes will support retention in a region facing an economic slowdown.

Euromonitor International's Elevating Engagement: The Loyalty Landscape in Asia Pacific global briefing offers insight into the size and shape of the Consumer Finance market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market. Forecasts provide an invaluable perspective on market evolution and the criteria for success. The briefing leverages Euromonitor International's 360-degree coverage of the global payments' landscape including insight on consumer debt.

Product coverage: Consumer Lending, E-Commerce in Proximity Location by Industry, Financial Cards and Payments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
