Abstracts

Demographic changes in emerging markets are strongly impacting the way consumers shop. Retailers have to adapt accordingly to cater to a new aspirational middle class, with access to higher levels of discretionary spending. This briefing assesses the non-grocery and non-store channels in emerging markets, as well as the challenges faced by local and international retailers present in the region.

Euromonitor International's Emerging Markets: Overview and Growth Opportunities in Non-Grocery and Non-Store Channels global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the retailing industry, highlights emerging trends, their effects on retailing in markets around the world, on the development of channels and consumers' shopping patterns. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they the developments of new store types, the importance of non-store retailing, economic/lifestyle influences, private label or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Non-Store Retailing, Store-based Retailing.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
