Abstracts

Emirates Group strives to be the leading global airline in terms of route network and service provided and to make Dubai a leading global hub. The company continued to see strong growth towards the end of the review period and will maintain its expansion strategy. During the financial year 2012-2013, Emirates Group, for example, increased its fleet by 10 A380s and 24 Boeing 777s, with nearly 200 wide-bodied aircraft still on order. The company will thus continue to expand its fleet, capacity...
