Abstracts

In 2023, the growth of energy drinks continues, albeit at a somewhat slower pace. The driving factor behind this steady performance is the growing interest from young consumers, who view these drinks as a vital part of their active lifestyles. However, energy drinks are not just a trendy option for young people. They are consumed for the energy boost they provide to support daily physical and mental activities, as well as the indulgence factor brought from the variety of flavours. Despite the co...
