Abstracts

Eastern Europe is the third fastest growing energy drinks market globally. Russia has the largest volume sales in the region, while Hungary leads by per capita consumption. Changes in consumers' lifestyles and preferences led to modifications in energy drinks. Reduced sugar and natural ingredients became the main base for innovations in the category.

Euromonitor International's Energy Drinks in Eastern Europe global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Soft Drinks market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The analysis can focus on value and volume for both off trade and on trade.

Product coverage: Asian Speciality Drinks, Bottled Water, Carbonates, Concentrates, Juice, RTD Coffee, RTD Tea, Sports and Energy Drinks.
