Abstracts

Despite the impact of the fifth wave of the pandemic on foodservice establishments such as cafés and restaurants in the first half of 2022, energy drinks was not hugely affected by the loss of footfall, as a notable segment of employees continued to purchase energy drinks through off-trade to boost their energy levels whilst working remotely from home. Therefore, the category is set to record moderate volume growth over 2022. Leading brand Red Bull remains top of mind for many local consumers, r...
