Abstracts

Off-Trade energy drinks experienced a period of stagnation in Tunisia in 2023, in terms of volume sales growth, compared to previous years. This slowdown can be attributed to various factors, including price hikes and inflation. The decrease in Tunisian purchasing power also influenced the demand in 2023, a consequence of the ongoing economic crisis. Further, the presence of a parallel market continued to stand as a significant factor hindering the growth of the legal market.
