Abstracts

2023 has marked another year of strong growth for energy drinks, which is expected to be amongst the strongest performers within the soft drinks industry. Energy drinks is set to experience double-digit growth in current value terms both on-trade and off-trade. This growth can be attributed to multiple factors, including price rises, innovation in flavour, a wider variety of reduced sugar products, and new marketing strategies. The return of on-the-go sales has significantly benefited soft drink...
