Abstracts

Indonesia's energy industry saw steady turnover growth in 2018, with the coal mining sector remaining a major contributor. Data from the Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources indicates that the country's coal production output stood at 528 million tonnes in 2018, which represented a 14.5% year-on-year increase. Total coal production volume exceeded the government's revised annual target of 506.9 million tonnes, partly due to rising domestic demand and the increased production quota, opened fo...
