Abstracts

Since March 2014 the company has been in liquidation and the bankruptcy administration is taking into consideration different offers for the acquisition of the company, which has been unable to cope with its debt of €6 million that matured in 2013. Despite this financial crisis that has paralyzed the company's expansion projects, Miró has continued the policy of converting some of its outlets into low-cost stores under the brand Miró Bajo Coste (Miró Low Cost), and reopening some of the...
