Abstracts

Despite economic uncertainty the beauty industry remains largely positive. The pursuit of luxury has been sustained, with premium sales rebounding strongly. Innovation is shifting towards a more holistic approach to product benefits and exploring completely novel concepts. Greater interest in sustainability, salon quality features and high-tech efficacy has created new scope for product development, while marketers are increasingly exploiting the digital space to enrich the brand experience.

Euromonitor International's Exploring Paradigm Shifts in Global Beauty global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.
