Abstracts

The global eyewear industry is expected to experience modest year-on-year growth in 2016. This is primarily due to weakening currencies against the US dollar resulting in poor performance in Eastern Europe and Latin America. Nonetheless the outlook for eyewear remains bright with growing demand for eyewear in emerging markets and disposable contact lenses for developed countries. Asia Pacific remains a key hot spot for eyewear.

Euromonitor International's Eyewear in 2017: Key Insights and System Refresher global briefing offers detailed strategic analysis of the global Eyewear market by pinpointing growth sectors, emerging trends, economic/lifestyle influences, highlights categories and geographies as well as pressing industry issues that are driving growth. The report identifies leading companies and brands within the competitive landscape, which feeds into shaping marketing and distribution strategies. From the latest cosmetics and coloured contact lenses to prescription glasses and frames, Euromonitor International offers an incisive snapshot of the Eyewear industry. Forecasts illustrate how the market is predicted to develop, regulatory shifts as well as opportunities to be seized for further growth.
