Abstracts

This report is the second part in a two-part series examining the impact fast fashion has had on the apparel and footwear industry and identifying key opportunities and challenges for brands, as purchasing behaviours shift and new consumerism alters priorities. Fast fashion's disruptive business model has long dominated the industry, however, as consumers' sustainability expectations surpass business developments and the concept of agile retail become more widely adopted.

Euromonitor International's Fast Fashion in 2016: Digital Opportunities and Agile Threats Part II global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the apparel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the clothing and footwear market - be they changes on the supply side, in channel dynamics, economic/ lifestyle /demographic influences or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Apparel, Footwear, Sportswear.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
