Abstracts

Although the core business of the company is soft drinks production and it is the main bottler of the brands owned by The Coca-Cola Co, FEMSA seeks to diversify from soft drinks as the company has reported that much of its growth comes from its other businesses. FEMSA's strategies aim to develop and expand its OXXO stores, while developing its private label options for food and beverages. The company's strategy includes the diversification and expansion of points of sale and services including p...
