Abstracts

Financial cards and payments performed well in Italy in 2023, both in terms of the number of cards in circulation and the value of transactions. Growth was underpinned by the growing trend towards cashless payments, even for smaller amounts, thanks to the development of POS infrastructure and the rising adoption of contactless technology, including mobile wallets. The recovery of tourism in Italy also impacted positively on the number of transactions made by financial cards in 2023, as well as i...
