Abstracts

Total payments on cards are expected to be on par with 2020, in spite of inflationary pressure. However, cash payments will further decline, as Russians continue to shift away from cash. The shift to electronic payments had been happening prior to pandemic, thanks to the strong push by the government towards the national payment system Mir and legislative requirements requiring that all welfare and pension payments should be processed through Mir - however, COVID-19 has accelerated this shift. I...
