Abstracts

Latin America is home to a number of innovative financial inclusion efforts to reach unbanked consumers, as well as to reach financially underserved consumers who only utilise basic financial services. The region demonstrates the importance of coordination among card payment companies, financial services providers and regulators to reach the most consumers throughout the country. Greater competition among providers has lowered the cost of financial services, increasing consumer adoption.

Euromonitor International's Financial Inclusion in Latin America global briefing offers insight into the size and shape of the Consumer Finance market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market. Forecasts provide an invaluable perspective on market evolution and the criteria for success. The briefing leverages Euromonitor International's 360-degree coverage of the global payments' landscape including insight on consumer debt.

Product coverage: Consumer Lending, Financial Cards and Payments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
