Abstracts

Value sales of fine wines/champagne and spirits are set to grow by 12% in current terms to total EUR1.3 billion in 2023, boosted by consumers' appetite for experiences and enjoyment after the pandemic. Entertaining and socialising with friends is a priority for many consumers in Italy, with this desire being even more pronounced following the limits placed on socialising during the pandemic. The return of important celebrations, such as weddings and birthday parties, has also led to increased co...
