Abstracts

With international travel hugely disrupted for Ukrainians during the pandemic and therefore there being limited ability to buy fine wines/champagne and spirits in airports and abroad, where such products are significantly cheaper, consumers bought products locally instead and this maintained value sales. In 2021, with the pandemic far from over, and international travel still disrupted, the situation remains the same. As a result, value growth in 2021 is expected to be on par with 2020. As in 20...
