Abstracts

Flavoured Powder Drinks are a nearly USD9 billion category worldwide, encompassing chocolate drinks, nutrition-added malt drinks, as well as hot drinks in a wide variety of flavours, like strawberry and banana. Shifting demographics mean that these usually youth-oriented drinks are struggling in the ageing markets of the developed world, but have a promising future in young developing economies, like Indonesia.

Euromonitor International's Flavoured Powder Drinks in 2017: Confronting an Ageing World global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the Hot Drinks market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The analysis can focus on both retail and foodservice.

Product coverage: Coffee, Other Hot Drinks, Tea.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
