Abstracts

Flavour is an essential tool for food and drinks producers, not only in delivering palatability but also in positioning a product or targeting a specific audience. Part Two of this 2-part report assesses trends in the types of flavours being used around the world, highlighting the ways in which flavours are used to position food and drinks and reviewing some of the key taste trends in the soft drinks, alcoholic drinks, dairy and ice cream, confectionery, snacks and sauces categories.

Euromonitor International's Flavours: Tasting Success Through Innovation (Part Two) global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the Ingredients market at an international level. It highlights the major drivers behind ingredient supply and demand, provides detailed analysis of the individual ingredient categories and the product categories they are used in. It also examines regional prospects, highlighting opportunities and challenges in ingredient usage.
