Abstracts

Flybe is undertaking the restructuring of its operations in a bid to restore profit margins, as it is seeking to return to profit rather than the loss seen in September 2013. To ensure continued profitability it has taken several measures to reduce its costs and therefore deal with previous losses resulting from the difficult economic conditions and, more specifically, a significant increase in Air Passenger Duty in April 2012. A reduction in headcount was announced in November, with 500...
