Abstracts

In early 2020, food and beverage manufacturers experienced a substantial setback, caused by faltering B2B demand. National quarantine conditions introduced in March 2020 led to closures of restaurants, international travel, hotels and schools, leading to a temporary halt in food ingredient orders for these establishments and falling revenues for food manufacturers. French households continued to spend on food as a key necessity, with some even succumbing to panic-buying during the lockdown, espe...
