Abstracts

Consumption of food intolerance packaged food products was driven by the increasing number of consumers who suffer from certain food intolerance (gluten/lactose intolerant consumers and diabetic consumers). It is not fashionable for Czech consumers to purchase food intolerance products to avoid gluten and sugar (in the sense of purchasing products for diabetic people) or lactose deliberately.

Euromonitor International's Food Intolerance in Czech Republic report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2008-2012, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2017 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Diabetic Food, Gluten-free Food, Lactose-free Food, Other HW Special Baby Milk Formula.
