Abstracts

Whilst there has been an ongoing consumer shift, with many preferring to do their bigger weekly shop online instead of in-store, there are still obstacles to food and drink internet retailing achieving its high potential. These have mainly to do with fresh food. People have a hard time selecting their own fresh food, let alone trusting someone else to select it for them. This is currently an issue and will remain a key issue for food and drink internet retailing. For grocery retailers to improve...

Euromonitor International's Food and Drink Internet Retailing in United Kingdom report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
