Abstracts

Once one of the world's poorest and least brand-savvy nations, India is now on its way to becoming a globally important packaged food market. With a population of over 1.2 billion and a rapidly expanding middle class eager to spend, India offers untapped potential for several stakeholders across the food chain. This briefing examines India's growing importance for packaged food, looks at the largest and fastest growing products, and identifies key opportunities for manufacturers.

Euromonitor International's Food Trends in India: What Makes the Indian Market so Different? global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Baby Food, Bakery, Canned/Preserved Food, Chilled Processed Food, Confectionery, Dairy, Dried Processed Food, Frozen Processed Food, Ice Cream, Meal Replacement, Noodles, Oils and Fats, Pasta, Ready Meals, Sauces, Dressings and Condiments, Snack Bars, Soup, Spreads, Sweet and Savoury Snacks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
