Abstracts

In 2012, Foodstuffs (South Island) announced its intention to develop a new state-of-the-art distribution centre in Hornby, Christchurch. Construction began in April 2012, and the site is expected to be operational by March 2013. The new building is expected to be 40,000 sq m, which will make it the largest single food distribution centre in New Zealand. The initiative was called Project Greenfields.
