Abstracts

In the dynamic footwear landscape in Australia, a tale of resilience and adaptability is unfolding. Despite facing headwinds from economic slowdown and soaring inflation, footwear is set to sustain steady growth in both retail volume and current value terms in 2023, outperforming within apparel and footwear. However, this success has not come without its share of challenges. The first half of the year bore witness to weak demand, casting a shadow over the latter half, compelling businesses to wr...
