Abstracts

Footwear has been under particular stress with the shift from traditional leather shoes to other materials and sports shoes for many years. In particular, children's footwear has been under pressure, and it is projected to see the biggest decline in retail volume sales over 2023. This performance is partly informed by parents repurposing more durable sneakers (trainers) for different occasions, thereby saving money on shoes. Among adult categories, the shift from traditional leather shoes to o...
