Abstracts

In 2019, the US wood and wood products sector recorded slowing revenue growth, owing to weaker domestic B2B demand. During the year, the US construction industry's revenues showed signs of a slowdown, due to a more restrained performance by residential construction and subdued demand for wood products from the leading construction companies. Moreover, in March 2020, the implementation of emergency protocols to tackle the threat of COVID-19 led to state-wide shutdowns of all non-essential work, w...
