Abstracts

Fortified/functional beverages continued to record strong growth in 2021 in current value terms. The category's sales saw a significant increase as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic as many Finns turned to FF beverages with added vitamins and minerals in the hopes of boosting their immunity. Aside from this, with consumers spending more time at home there was also a natural increase in demand for beverages in general, including fortified/functional options.

Euromonitor International's Fortified/Functional Beverages in Finland report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.
