Abstracts

Fortified/functional beverages in South Korea is set to see a rebound in growth in 2021, supported by the positive performance of FF energy drinks, and the smaller category of FF bottled water. Sales of FF energy drinks continue to grow as consumers search for caffeine-fortified beverages as a stress relief measure. Since the spread of the pandemic, the demand for functional food and beverages that ease the associated psychological toll taken on consumers has increased in South Korea.

Euromonitor International's Fortified/Functional Beverages in South Korea report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector.
